

Proper Logo Usage

The word "airvet" in a blue, lowercase, sans-serif font, centered within a light yellow rounded rectangle.

The preferred logo for light backgrounds is Airvet in blue.

The word "airvet" in a black, lowercase, sans-serif font, centered within a light yellow rounded rectangle.

Airvet in black is also acceptable when the design calls for it.

The word "airvet" in a white, lowercase, sans-serif font, centered within a blue rounded rectangle.

Airvet in white should be used on darker backgrounds.

No other colors are allowed.

Logo Usage with Other Logos

airvet
airvet
PARTNER

airvet
PARTNER

When stacked, enough space should be left for an invisible Airvet logo between logos.

airvet | PARTNER

airvet | PARTNER

When side by side, Airvet uses a thin divider line with enough space should be left for an invisible Airvet “a” between the line and logos.

Improper Logo Usage

The Airvet logo should never be distorted or squished.

The Airvet logo should never be placed at an angle.

The Airvet blue logo should never be placed on a busy background.

The Airvet logo should never be another color.

The Airvet logo should never be multi colored.

The Airvet logo should never be transparent.