

October: Wellness Month

October is National Pet Wellness Month, a great time to remind your team that a general or welcome visit with Airvet is a simple way to stay ahead of their pet's health, with no long waits to see a vet required. We recommend sharing an announcement the first week of October to kick off the month. Three short message options are included below. Have a question? It's Pet Wellness Month: Time for a Check-In 🩺🐾

Schedule a free virtual veterinary visit and get proactive about your pet's care. Airvet makes it easy for you to catch small health changes before they become bigger challenges later. You can:

- 📋 Share your pet's health history if you're new to Airvet
- ⚖️ Flag any changes in weight, appetite, or energy
- 🧠 Ask questions about diet, behavior, or life stage
- 🩺 Build a baseline with a licensed veterinarian

Your Pet's Wellness Check-In Is Waiting 🐶🐱

It's National Pet Wellness Month! A quick check-in now can catch small changes before they turn into bigger worries, and it takes less time than a trip to the vet's office.

With an Airvet general or welcome visit, you can:

- Introduce your pet to a licensed veterinarian
- Ask anything on your mind, no question is too small
- Get a health baseline to track over time
- Do it all from your phone, no waiting room required
